Try our new treatment that takes inches off your body. The Center for Therapeutic Massage Inc. is offering M'Lis Contour Body Wrap Treatments

The M'Lis Body Contour Wrap was introduced to help people suffering from circulation conditions. Body contouring and inch loss was also discovered when using this wrap on the clients. When used in conjunction with proper eating, exercise and drinking water this inch loss can be permanent. You can read more about the benefits and the treatment options on our website www.ctmschool.com

NEED CEU's?

Beginning in May, the Center for Therapeutic Massage is offering a number of continuing education courses designed to educate and update massage therapists. These courses will help the massage therapist keep up to date on information as well as learn new techniques. The Continuing Education courses are approved by the NCBTMB and can be used for recertification.
